

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Columbus, OH based CPA Firm Launches Charlotte, NC Office
The firm deploys deep expertise across multiple industries

Columbus, OH, July 13, 2015 - Kaiser Consulting, a central Ohio based Accounting and IT compliance consulting firm is expanding and establishing a Charlotte, NC office. Kaiser Consulting specializes in a broad range of industry-specific accounting and business consulting services including compliance audits, outsourced accounting services and process improvement. Annette Williams, CPA has been appointed to lead the new location.

Kaiser Consulting's innovative solutions are custom designed to improve a company's bottom line and make business practices as efficient and profitable as possible. Many clients engage Kaiser Consulting for work upon which their external auditor must remain independent, or when staffing consistency, experience or value-pricing are integral to the project.

Kaiser Consulting's founder, Lori Kaiser says: "We see a tremendous opportunity in serving organizations in the Charlotte market and Annette's understanding of our business model and services makes her the perfect leader to establish this location."

Kaiser Consulting's staff of professionals has a minimum of 5 years of industry experience, with most being 10 years or more. They employ professionals who are leaders in their industry. Many are CPA's, MBA's and CISA's with Big 4 Accounting Firm experience. Their employees are professionals who have chosen project work as a career path. Kaiser Consulting experiences very low staff turnover allowing for experienced resources and consistency in staffing projects.
