ABOUT KRISTINE

Kristine is a dedicated professional bringing 20+ years of bookkeeping, accounting, and office administration experience to her client projects. Throughout her career, she has demonstrated a commitment to thoughtful planning, innovative problem-solving and solutions-oriented support aimed at exceeding client expectations.

As an accounting manager at the then-largest wireless messaging company in the world, Kristine managed the overall direction, coordination and evaluation of the accounting, billing, collections, inventory, and human resource departments, including overseeing payroll and annual internal audits. Additionally, she prepared the budget, financial statements, and custom financial reports in her finance role at a nonprofit organization.

Kristine is adept at accounts receivable and payables, invoicing and collections, account reconciliations, journal entry preparation, the monthly close process, and financial statement preparation. With strong organizational skills and attention to detail, she also has experience with QuickBooks.

Passionate about helping others, Kristine can develop and facilitate training, lead projects, and create new business processes to streamline and improve business operations. Clients appreciate her ability to listen to their needs and to effectively communicate and work, independently or collaboratively, with all members of their organization.
