Founder, Strategic Advisor + Shareholder

ABOUT LORI

Lori is an accomplished corporate leader, visionary, and business strategist with real-world experience and a proven track record of assessing and mitigating risk and creating and executing innovative solutions for Fortune 500 company C-level executives and boards. She combines strong business judgment, financial acumen and technical expertise with a global perspective and team approach to implement best practices that resolve complex financial, operational, sales and human resource issues.

As the founder and former CEO of Kaiser Consulting, Lori pioneered the company's award-winning, nationally recognized part-time, flexible business model. She led the firm to multimillion-dollar growth and a team of nearly 100 professional employees since its inception in 1992. Lori currently serves as a strategic advisor to the firm, working closely with our managing partner and the leadership team to ensure the continued success of Kaiser Consulting's relationships with its employees and clients.
